CADA'S JOURNEY FROM JANUARY-MARCH 2025

Fourteen kilometers from Bamenda city,in Abongfen quarter,Babanki Tugoh,Northwest region of Cameroon,Collective Arts Development Association(CADA) own and manages a farmland. Here,through a learning by doing process, we train participants on organic and traditional farming methods and cultivate crops like maize,beans,cassava and other vegetable crops for both for commercial and subsistence motives.

At the beginning of this year 2025 we embark on constructing a local farm house which will be use to keep our farm tools,store our products,prepare organic manure,seedlings among others. With the aid of project participants for our nine months intensive training program,we have been able to mole blocks with red mud and raise the walls. At the moment we are doing everything possible before the rain comes heavily to roof and zinc the house.

Meanwhile,on the 20th of February 2025,we launched a nine months intensive flagship program at our Art school situated at Ntabessi Junction,Nkwen Bamenda. Fifteen youth participants among them school dropouts,orphans,internally displaced and the vulnerable constituted the 3rd batch of our flagship program.Training has been going on from the 20th of February to present were as usual,participants are train in life skill education,visual,graphic art, craft and social entrepreneurship skill development.

It is our pleasure to use this newsletter to officially welcome fifteen youth participants all disadvantaged youths affected by the Anglophone crisis that are going through a nine months intensive flagship training program in our art school. It is worth noting that these youths make up the third batch of our flagship program. And we believe it is our responsibility as a youth led non profit organization to positively transform these youths, enable them add more meaning to their lives, rebuild resilience to lead a healthy, responsible and sustainable livelihood.

Once again, we take this opportunity to express our gratitude to our donors, collaborators, supporters and well wishers. We pray the sources of all your efforts in assisting us to positively transform the minds of our beneficiaries be replenish triple folds.
